Eligibility

* indicates a required field

This program gives museums, galleries, and collections access to our museum professionals for up to 25 days.

Before making an application, you need to contact our Roving Curators to discuss the planned activity.

As the applicant, your organisation must:

- manage publicly owned, publicly accessible, permanent collections of movable cultural heritage objects or artworks; and,
- have (or be working towards) regular opening hours.

Privately owned collections, federal government collections, Tasmanian Government Business Enterprises and Tasmanian Government Departments are not eligible for the program.

Your organisation must also meet Arts Tasmania's general eligibility requirements.

I confirm that I have read and understood the eligibility requirements for this program. ***

Yes

I confirm that I have spoken to the Roving Curators about applying to this program. ***

Certification

* indicates a required field

Assessment of applications

Peers from the Cultural and Creative Industries Expert Register will assess all applications and make a recommendation for funded activities to the Minister for the Arts. The Minister will make a decision based on that recommendation.

Decisions made by the Minister for the Arts are final and can only be appealed if the grounds for appeal are met.

For more information relating to the assessment process for programs, please visit: www.arts.tas.gov.au/funding/how\_are\_decisions\_made

You can view past decisions at: www.arts.tas.gov.au/funding/decisions

Appealing a decision

Arts Tasmania may reconsider a decision if the applicant can demonstrate a proven conflict of interest, error in process or discrimination.

The grounds for appeal are available at: https://www.arts.tas.gov.au/funding/appealing\_a\_decision

Working with children

Arts Tasmania is committed to encouraging the involvement of young people and children in the arts, both as participants in the creative process and as audience members. Such involvement needs to be within a set of safeguards that protect children from exploitation and harm.

If you are successful in receiving support from Arts Tasmania, and your activity involves people under the age of 18, you will be obligated to abide by the Australia Council for the Art's protocols for working with children and any relevant laws and regulations that apply in Tasmania or other jurisdictions where the supported activity is taking place.

Details on the requirements in Tasmania are available at Service Tasmania here.

The Australia Council for the Arts' protocols for working with children are available at: www.australiacouncil.gov.au/funding/children-in-art-protocols

Right to information

Information you provide to the Department of State Growth and details of assistance may be subject to requests for public disclosure under the Right to Information Act 2009.

Personal information collection
